

Photo: Contributed

FOR BETTER AFTER-SCHOOL CARE ... The German Embassy in Windhoek provided funds for the construction of a new building at the Early Childhood Development After-School Resource Centre in Katutura. Onno Hückmann, German Ambassador to Namibia cuts the ribbon to officially open the new classroom at the centre recently. With Hückmann are learners Milko Solonga, Elvis Merteens, (front), Otilie Abrahams, who is a member to the Namibian Women's Association, Christina Jansen, a teacher at the centre (back row), Luis Solunga and Lauren Voges, chairperson of the International Women's Association Namibia (far right).