

The International Women's Association – Namibia (IWAN) is a social organization for women living in Namibia, mainly in the capital of Windhoek. It is a non-profit, non-religious, apolitical association, which aims to support and welcome all new arrivals to Namibia and to help various charitable groups. Women of all nationalities are eligible to join the Association, as a Full Member with voting rights (N$180.00 per annum/N$70.00 for students).
